Glossário

Collateral	Assets that are offered to secure a loan or other credit. For example, if you get a real estate mortgage, the bank's collateral is typically your house. Collateral becomes subject to seizure on default.
Collected Funds	Cash deposits or checks that have been presented for payment and for which payment has been received.
Collection Agency	A company hired by a creditor to collect a debt that is owed. Creditors typically hire a collection agency only after they have made efforts to collect the debt themselves, usually through letters and telephone calls.
Collection Items	Items—such as drafts, notes, and acceptances—received for collection and credited to a depositor's account after payment has been received. Collection items are usually subject to special instructions and may involve additional fees. Most banks impose a special fee, called a collection charge, for handling collection items.
Collective Investment Funds (CIFs)	A Collective Investment Fund (CIF) is a trust created and administered by a bank or trust company that commingles assets from multiple clients. The Federal securities laws generally require entities that pool securities to register those pooled vehicles (such as mutual funds) with the SEC. However, Congress created exemptions from these registration requirements for CIFs so long as the entity offering these funds is a bank or other authorized entity and so long as participation in the fund is restricted to only those customers covered by the exemption. If these limitations are met, CIFs are exempt from SEC registration and reporting requirements.
Comaker	A person who signs a note to guarantee a loan made to another person and is jointly liable with the maker for repayment of the loan. (Also known as a Cosigner.)
Community Reinvestment Act	The Act is intended to encourage depository institutions to help meet the credit needs of the communities in which they operate, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods. It was enacted by the Congress in 1977.
Consumer Credit Counseling Service	A service which specializes in working with consumers who are overextended with debts and need to make arrangements with creditors.

Glossário

Typical clients include banks, mortgage lenders, credit card companies, and other financing companies.
Conventional Fixed Rate Mortgage	A fixed-rate mortgage offers you a set interest rate and payments that do not change throughout the life, or "term," of the loan. A conventional fixed-rate loan is fully paid off over a given number of years-usually 15, 20, or 30. A portion of each monthly payment goes towards paying back the money borrowed, the "principal"; the rest is "interest."
Cosigner	An individual who signs the note of another person as support for the credit of the primary signer and who becomes responsible for the obligation. (Also known as a Comaker.)
Credit Application	A form to be completed by an applicant for a credit account, giving sufficient details (residence, employment, income, and existing debt) to allow the seller to establish the applicant's creditworthiness. Sometimes, an application fee is charged to cover the cost of loan processing.
Credit Bureau	An agency that collects individual credit information and sells it for a fee to creditors so they can make a decision on granting loans. Typical clients include banks, mortgage lenders, credit card companies, and other financing companies. Also commonly referred to as a consumer reporting agency or a credit reporting agency.
Credit Card Account Agreement	A written agreement that explains the terms and conditions of the account; credit usage and payment by the cardholder; duties and responsibilities of the card issuer.
Credit Card Issuer	Any financial institution that issues bank cards to those who apply for them.
Credit Disability Insurance	A type of insurance, also known as accident and health insurance, that makes payments on the loan if you become ill or injured and cannot work.
Credit Life Insurance	A type of life insurance that helps repay a loan if you should die before the loan is fully repaid. This is optional coverage.

Glossário

Credit Limit	The maximum amount of credit that is available on a credit card or other line of credit account.
Credit Report	A detailed report of an individual's credit history prepared by a credit bureau and used by a lender in determining a loan applicant's creditworthiness.
Credit Score	A number, roughly between 300 and 800, that measures an individual's credit worthiness. The most well-known type of credit score is the FICO® score. This score represents the answer from a mathematical formula that assigns numerical values to various pieces of information in your credit report. Banks use a credit score to help determine whether you qualify for a particular credit card, loan, or service.
Cut-Off Time	A time of day established by a bank for receipt of deposits. After the cut-off time, deposits are considered received on the next banking day.
D
Debit	A debit may be an account entry representing money you owe a lender or money that has been taken from your deposit account.
Debit Card	A debit card allows the account owner to access their funds electronically. Debit cards may be used to obtain cash from automated teller machines or purchase goods or services using point-of-sale systems. The use of a debit card involves immediate debiting and crediting of consumers' accounts.
Debt Collector	Any person who regularly collects debts owed to others.
Debt Elimination Scheme	A debt elimination scheme is a plan that is advertised as a way for an individual to eliminate various types of debt simply by paying someone a small fee compared to the amount of debt to be eliminated. These schemes are fraudulent. As a result of using a fraudulent scheme, individuals will lose money, could lose property, will damage their credit rating, and possibly incur additional debt. In addition, a creditor may take legal action against an individual to resolve a fraudulent attempt to eliminate debt. It is also possible for the victim to have identify theft occur by participating in such a fraudulent scheme.

Glossário

Debtor	Someone who owes monies to another party.
Debt-to-Income Ratio (DTI)	The percentage of a consumer's monthly gross income that goes toward paying debts. Generally, the higher the ratio, the higher the perceived risk. Loans with higher risk are generally priced at a higher interest rate.
Decedent	A deceased person ordinarily used with respect to one who has died recently.
Deferred Payment	A payment postponed until a future date.
Delinquency	A debt that was not paid when due.
Demand Deposit	A deposit of funds that can be withdrawn without any advance notice.
Deposit Slip	An itemized memorandum of the cash and other funds that a customer presents to the bank for credit to his or her account.
Derogatory Information	Data received by a creditor indicating that a credit applicant has not paid his or her accounts with other creditors according to the required terms.
Direct Deposit	A payment that is electronically deposited into an individual's account at a depository institution.
Direct Dispute	A dispute submitted directly to the furnisher about the accuracy of information in your consumer report that relates to an account or other relationship you have with the furnisher.
Disclosures	Certain information that Federal and State laws require creditors to give to borrowers relative to the terms of the credit extended.
Draft	A signed, written order by which one party (the drawer) instructs another party (the drawee) to pay a specified sum to a third party (the payee), at sight or at a specific date. Typical bank drafts are negotiable instruments and are similar in many ways to checks.
Drawee	The person (or bank) who is expected to pay a check or draft when it is presented for payment.
Drawee bank	The bank upon which a check is drawn.

Glossário

Drawer

The person who writes a check or draft instructing the drawee to pay someone else.

E

Electronic Banking

A service that allows an account holder to obtain account information and manage certain banking transactions through a personal computer via the financial institution's Website on the Internet. (This is also known as Internet or online banking.)

Electronic Check Conversion

Electronic check conversion is a process in which your check is used as a source of information-for the check number, your account number, and the number that identifies your financial institution. The information is then used to make a one-time electronic payment from your account-an electronic fund transfer.

Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT)

The transfer of money between accounts by consumer electronic systems-such as automated teller machines (ATMs) and electronic payment of bills-rather than by check or cash. (Wire transfers, checks, drafts, and paper instruments do not fall into this category.)

Embezzlement

In most States, embezzlement is defined as theft/larceny of assets (money or property) by a person in a position of trust or responsibility over those assets. Embezzlement typically occurs in the employment and corporate settings.

Encoding

The process used to imprint or inscribe MICR characters on checks, deposits, and other financial instruments.

A period of time that allows the banks to exceed the maximum hold periods defined in the Expedited Funds Availability Act.

F

Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act of 2003 (FACT Act or FACTA)

The purpose of this Act is to help consumers protect their credit identities and recover from identity theft. One of the key provisions of this Act is that consumers can request and obtain a free credit report once every 12 months from each of the three nationwide consumer credit reporting companies (Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion).

Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA)

A Federal law, established in 1971 and revised in 1997, that gives consumers the right to see their credit records and correct any mistakes. The FCRA regulates consumer credit reporting and related industries to ensure that consumer information is reported in an accurate, timely, and complete manner. The Act was amended to address the sharing of consumer information with affiliates.

Glossário

Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA)	The Fair Debt Collection Practices Act is a set of United States statutes added as Title VIII of the Consumer Credit Protection Act. Its purpose is to ensure ethical practices in the collection of consumer debts and to provide consumers with an avenue for disputing and obtaining validation of debt information in order to ensure the information's accuracy. It is often used in conjunction with the Fair Credit Reporting Act.
Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC)	A government corporation that insures the deposits of all national and State banks that are members of the Federal Reserve System.
Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)	Federal agency responsible for the emergency evaluation and response to all disasters, natural and man-made. FEMA oversees the administration of flood insurance programs and the designation of certain areas as flood prone.
Federal Reserve System	The central bank of the United States. The Fed, as it is commonly called, regulates the U.S. monetary and financial system. The Federal Reserve System is composed of a central governmental agency in Washington, D.C. (the Board of Governors) and twelve regional Federal Reserve Banks in major cities throughout the United States.
Fiduciary	Undertaking to act as executor, administrator, guardian, conservator, or trustee for a family trust, authorized trust, or testamentary trust, or receiver or trustee in bankruptcy.
Finance Charge	The total cost of credit a customer must pay on a consumer loan, including interest. The Truth in Lending Act requires disclosure of the finance charge.
Financial Regulatory Agency	An organization authorized by statute for ensuring the safe and sound operation of financial institutions chartered to conduct business under that agency's jurisdiction.
First Mortgage	A real estate loan which is in a first lien position, taking priority over all other liens. In case of a foreclosure, the first mortgage will be repaid before any other mortgages.
Fixed Rate Loan	The interest rate and the payment remain the same over the life of the loan. The consumer makes equal monthly payments of principal and interest until the debt is paid in full.

Glossário

Fixed Rate Mortgage	A mortgage with payments that remain the same throughout the life of the loan because the interest rate and other terms are fixed and do not change.
Float	1) The amount of uncollected funds represented by checks in the possession of one bank but drawn on other banks. 2) The time that elapses between the day a check is deposited and the day it is presented for payment to the financial institution on which it is drawn.
Flood Insurance	Flood insurance protects against water from an overflowing river or a hurricane's tidal surge and also covers damage from water that builds up during storms.
Flood Plain	A strip of relatively flat and normally dry land alongside a stream, river, or lake that is covered by water during a flood.
Foreclosure	A legal process in which property that is collateral or security for a loan may be sold to help repay the loan when the loan is in default.
Foreign Transaction Fees	A fee assessed by your bank for making a transaction at another bank's ATM.
Forged Check	A check on which the drawer's signature has been forged.
Forgery	The fraudulent signing or alteration of another's name to an instrument such as a deed, mortgage, or check. The intent of the forgery is to deceive or defraud.
Fraud Alert	A key provision of the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act of 2003 is the consumer's ability to place a fraud alert on their credit record. A consumer would use this option if they believe they were a victim of identity theft. The alert requires any creditor that is asked to extend credit to contact the consumer by phone and verify that the credit application was not made by an identity thief.
Freedom of Information Act	A Federal law that mandates that all the records created and kept by Federal agencies in the executive branch of government must be open for public inspection and copying. The only exceptions are those records that fall into one of nine exempted categories listed in the statute.

Glossário

Frozen Account

An account on which funds may not be withdrawn until a lien is satisfied and a court order or other legal process makes the account available for withdrawal (e.g., the account of a deceased person is frozen pending a court order distributing the funds to the new lawful owners). An account may also be frozen when there is a dispute regarding the true ownership of an account. The bank will freeze the account to preserve the existing funds until legal action can determine the lawful owner.

Furnisher

An entity that provides information about a consumer to a consumer reporting agency for inclusion in a consumer report.

G

Garnishment/ Garnish

A legal process that allows a creditor to remove funds from your bank account to satisfy a debt that you have not paid. If you owe money to a person or company, they can obtain a court order directing your bank to take money out of your account to pay off your debt.

Guaranteed Student Loan

An extension of credit from a financial institution that is guaranteed by a Federal or State government entity to assist with tuition and other educational expenses. The government entity is responsible for paying the interest on the loan and paying the lender to manage it. The government entity also is responsible for the loan if the student defaults.

Guarantor

A party who agrees to be responsible for the payment of another party's debts should that party default.

H

Hold

Used to indicate that a certain amount of a customer's balance may not be withdrawn until an item has been collected, or until a specific check or debit is posted.

Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC)

A line of credit secured by the equity in a consumer's home. It can be used for home improvements, debt consolidation, and other major purchases. Interest paid on the loan is generally tax deductible (consult a tax advisor to be sure). The funds may be accessed by writing checks against the line of credit or by getting a cash advance.

Glossário

Home Equity Loan

A home equity loan allows you to tap into your home's built-up equity, which is the difference between the amount that your home could be sold for and the amount that you still owe. Homeowners often use a home-equity loan for home improvements, to pay for a new car, or to finance their child's college education. The interest paid is usually tax-deductible. Because the loan is secured by your home's equity, if you default, the bank may foreclose on your house and take ownership of it. This type of loan is sometimes referred to as a second mortgage or borrowing against your home.

I

Inactive Account

An account that has little or no activity; neither deposits nor withdrawals having been posted to the account for a significant period of time.

Index-linked Certificate of Deposit

An index-linked CD is a deposit obligation of the issuing bank and is often sold through bank branches and affiliated and unaffiliated brokers. Index-linked CDs provide the investor the ability to participate in the appreciation, if any, of a particular index, during the term of the CD. Index-linked CDs may have complicated payout structures and may not be suitable or appropriate for all investors. Investors should carefully review the investment risk considerations detailed in the relevant offering documents and disclosure statements. Index-linked CDs are not securities and are not registered under securities laws.

Individual Account

An account in the name of one individual.

Individual Retirement Account (IRA)

A retirement savings program for individuals to which yearly tax-deductible contributions up to a specified limit can be made. The amount contributed is not taxed until withdrawn. Withdrawal is not permitted without penalty until the individual reaches age 59 1/2.

Glossário

Insured Deposits	Deposits held in financial institutions that are guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) against loss due to bank failure.
Interest	The term interest is used to describe the cost of using money, a right, share, or title in property.
Interest Rate	The amount paid by a borrower to a lender in exchange for the use of the lender's money for a certain period of time. Interest is paid on loans or on debt instruments, such as notes or bonds, either at regular intervals or as part of a lump sum payment when the issue matures.
Interest Rate Index	IA table of yields or interest rates being paid on debt that is used to determine interest-rate changes for adjustable-rate mortgages and other variable-rate loans.
J
Joint Account	An account owned by two or more persons. Either party can conduct transactions separately or together as set forth in the deposit account contract.
K
Kiting	Writing a check in an amount that will overdraw the account but making up the deficiency by depositing another check on another bank. For example, mailing a check for the mortgage when your checking account has insufficient funds to cover the check, but counting on receiving and depositing your paycheck before the mortgage company presents the check for payment.
L
Late Charge	The fee charged for delinquent payment on an installment loan, usually expressed as a percentage of the loan balance or payment. Also, a penalty imposed by a card issuer against a cardholder's account for failing to make minimum payments.
Lease	A contract transferring the use of property or occupancy of land, space, structures, or equipment in consideration of a payment (e.g., rent).

Glossário

Lender	An individual or financial institution that lends money with the expectation that the money will be returned with interest.
Lien	Legal claim against a property. Once the property is sold, the lien holder is then paid the amount that is owed.
Line of Credit	A pre-approved loan authorization with a specific borrowing limit based on creditworthiness. A line of credit allows borrowers to obtain a number of loans without re-applying each time as long as the total of borrowed funds does not exceed the credit limit.
Loan-to-Value Ratio (LTV)	The ratio of the loan principal (amount borrowed) to the appraised value (selling price). For example, on a $100,000 home, with a mortgage loan principal of $80,000, the loan-to-value ratio is 80 percent. The LTV will affect programs available to the borrower; generally, the lower the LTV, the more favorable the program terms offered by lenders.
Loan Contract	The written agreement between a borrower and a lender in which the terms and conditions of the loan are set.
Loan Fee	A fee charged by a lender to make a loan (in addition to the interest charged to the borrower).
Loan Modification Provision	A contractual agreement in a loan that allows the borrower or lender to permanently change one or more of the terms of the original contract.
Loan Proceeds	The net amount of funds that a lending institution disburses under the terms of a loan, and which the borrower then owes.
Local Check	A check payable by, at, or through a bank in the same check processing region as the location of the branch of the depository bank. The depository bank is the bank into which the check was deposited. As of February 27, 2010, the Federal Reserve consolidated its checking processing centers into one processing center. Therefore, all checks are now considered local.

Glossário

M

Manufactured (mobile) home	A structure, built on a permanent chassis, transported to a site in one or more sections, and affixed to a permanent foundation. The term does not include recreational vehicles.
Maturity	The date on which the principal balance of a loan, bond, or other financial instrument becomes due and payable.

Missing Payment	A payment that has been made but not credited to the appropriate account.
Mobile home	To be eligible for coverage under the National Flood Insurance Program, a mobile home must be on a permanent foundation and meet specific anchoring requirements for its location.
Money Market Deposit Account	A savings account that offers a higher rate of interest in exchange for larger than normal deposits. Insured by the FDIC, these accounts have limits on the number of transactions allowed and may require higher balances to receive the higher rate of interest.
Money Market Fund	An open-ended mutual fund that invests in short-term debts and monetary instruments such as Treasury bills and pays money market rates of interest. Money market funds usually offer checkwriting privileges. They are not insured by the FDIC.
Mortgage	A debt instrument used in a real estate transaction where the property is the collateral for the loan. A mortgage gives the lender a right to take possession of the property if the borrower fails to pay off the loan.
Mortgage Loan	A loan made by a lender to a borrower for the financing of real property.
Mortgagee	The lender in a mortgage loan relationship

Glossário

Mortgagor

The borrower in a mortgage loan relationship. (Property is used as collateral to make payment.)

Mutual Fund

A fund operated by an investment company that raises money from shareholders and invests it in stocks, bonds, options, commodities, or money market securities. These funds offer investors the advantages of diversification and professional management. To participate, the investor may pay fees and expenses. (Mutual funds are not covered by FDIC insurance).

N

National Bank

A bank that is subject to the supervision of the Comptroller of the Currency. The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency is a bureau of the U.S. Treasury Department. A national bank can be recognized because it must have "national" or "national association" in its name.

National Bank Examiner

An employee of the Comptroller of the Currency whose function is to examine federally chartered financial institutions. Examiners evaluate bank activities and management processes to ensure national banks operate in a safe and sound manner and comply with laws and regulations.

The PRP generally is available for property located in B, C, and X Zones in Regular Program Communities that meets eligibility requirements based on the property's flood loss history.

Glossário

Prepayment	The payment of a debt before it actually becomes due.
Prepayment Clause	A clause in a mortgage allowing the mortgagor to pay off part or all of the unpaid debt before it becomes due.
Prepayment Penalty	A penalty imposed on a borrower for repaying the loan before its due date. (In the case of a mortgage, this applies when there is not a prepayment clause in the mortgage note to offset the penalty).
Previous Balance	The cardholder's account balance as of the previous billing statement.
Principal Balance	The outstanding balance on a loan, excluding interest and fees.
Private Mortgage Insurance (PMI)	Insurance offered by a private insurance company that protects the bank against loss on a defaulted mortgage up to the limit of the policy (usually 20 to 25 percent of the loan amount). PMI is usually limited to loans with a high loan-to-value (LTV) ratio. The borrower pays the premium.
R
Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA)	Federal law that, among other things, requires lenders to provide "good faith" estimates of settlement costs and make other disclosures regarding the mortgage loan. RESPA also limits the amount of funds held in escrow for real estate taxes and insurance.
Reconciliation	The process of analyzing two related records and, if differences exist between them, finding the cause and bringing the two records into agreement. Example: Comparing an up-to-date check book with a monthly statement from the financial institution holding the account.
Redlining	The alleged practice of certain lending institutions of not making mortgage, home improvement, and small business loans in certain neighborhoods-usually areas that are deteriorating or considered by the lender to be poor investments.
Refinancing	A way of obtaining a better interest rate, lower monthly payments, or borrow cash on the equity in a property that has built up on a loan. A second loan is taken out to pay off the first, higher-rate loan.

Glossário

Refund	An amount paid back because of an overpayment or because of the return of an item previously sold.
Regular Program Community	A community wherein a Flood Insurance Rate Map is in effect and full limits of coverage are available under the Flood Disaster Protection Act (FDPA or Act).
Release of Lien	To free a piece of real estate from a mortgage.
Renewal	A form of extending an unpaid loan in which the borrower's remaining unpaid loan balance is carried over (renewed) into a new loan at the beginning of the next financing period.
Residual Interest	Interest that continues to accrue on your credit card balance from the statement cycle date until the bank receives your payment.
Return Item	A negotiable instrument—principally a check—that has been sent to one bank for collection and payment and is returned unpaid by the sending bank.
Reverse Mortgage	A reverse mortgage is a special home loan product that allows a homeowner aged 62 or older the ability to access the equity that has accumulated in their home. The home itself will be the source of repayment. The loan is underwritten based on the value of the collateral (home) and the life expectancy of the borrower. The loan must be repaid when you die, sell your home, or no longer live there as your principal residence.
Revolving Credit	A credit agreement (typically a credit card) that allows a customer to borrow against a preapproved credit line when purchasing goods and services. The borrower is only billed for the amount that is actually borrowed plus any interest due. (Also called a charge account or open-end credit.)
Right of Offset	Banks' legal right to seize funds that a guarantor or debtor may have on deposit to cover a loan in default. It is also known as the right of set-off.
Right of Rescission	Right to cancel, within three business days, a contract that uses the home of a person as collateral, except in the case of a first mortgage loan. There is no fee to the borrower, who receives a full refund of all fees paid. The right of rescission is guaranteed by the Truth in Lending Act (TILA).
